

Ulrik Åshuvud, an international lawyer with a passion for process management and quality assurance of both justice and migration processes. He has a long experience from different management and expert positions in the field of Justice and Home Affairs since 1994 in the Swedish Ministry of Justice and Swedish Migration Agency, e.g. as National Process Manager for Return, Head of Department for Reception, Contingency Manager, Chief of Staff for EU and International Affairs at the Swedish Migration Agency, Head of Secretariat for the Baltic Sea Task-Force on Organized Crime and JHA Counsellor in Brussels (anti-terror & criminal law).

He has led multilateral operative co-operation frameworks and has been Lead Consultant as well as Head of Delegation for several international assignments to e.g. Afghanistan, Iraq, Turkey, Ukraine, Vietnam, Malawi and Mozambique both in the field of justice and migration. He is the founder of JustDevelop – a management consulting firm specializing in Justice and Migration Management – and is the CEO since 2016.